

Join us in Boston, Saturday, October, 17, 2015 at Mass. Eye and Ear for the

2nd Biennial Strabismus Fall Festival

Course Description

This one-day, CME eligible symposium focuses on techniques and advances in strabismus surgery through a case-based approach. The two educational components are:

- Strategies of strabismus surgery through the presentation of "unknown" cases to a panel of five skilled strabismus surgeons to hear real-time discussions on surgical decision-making and outcomes.
- Presentation of didactic lectures by each of the panelists. Each talk will cover clinical topics that provide a framework for the cases discussed, as well as new insights into the advances in the field of strabismus surgery and pediatric ophthalmology.
